WHAT THE PLAYERS HAVE DONE.

WEDNESDAY, JUN. 2, 1890.—
WILMINGTON, 6;
NEWARK, 22; WILMINGTON, 6.

The game at Newark was won by the Newark and Wilmington resulted in an easy victory for the Newark.

Mr. Showalter handled the white army in the seventh game with a Roy Lewis opening. Kentucky's tall champion planned a masterly defense and carried it out effectively. Mr. Bushfield had to resign on the thirty-seventh move. The game is appended.
